We respectfully request our friends to send in their Advertisements as early in the week as convenient and if possible let us have them by Thursday evening. This means, we will be able to issue an earlier hour on Saturday, and will be enabled to give more of the latest news, up to the time of our going to press.
READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.

LOCAL ITEMS.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1868.

Meeting of Democratic Club.
It will be remembered that the next monthly meeting of the Club will take place on Monday next, when a ticket for District Officers will be nominated. A full meeting is desired.

Stephens on the War.
We would call attention to the notice in our advertising columns of the Official History of the War by the late Vice-President of the Confederate States. The distinguished position and high reputation of the author will render it highly authentic and interesting. An agent is wanted and the work will certainly meet with a ready sale, for the reasons we have mentioned.

The Land We Love.
The May number of this valuable Southern publication has been received. In addition to the other attractions, there is a handsomely executed steel engraving of the family of Hon.
Jefferson Davis. This magazine deserves a very extensive circulation throughout the South.

The Baltimore Leader.
We have received the first number of this new Weekly, devoted to Literature, Politics and Domestic Economy. Its Literary Department is full of good stories, and well drawn pictures of life and manners; its politics are strictly conservative, and its other features as commendable to Southern patronage. It is published by the Leader Association, at $3.00 per annum. Address The Leader 20 South Street, Baltimore, Md.

Demorest's Young America.
This publication improves with every Number. It contains double the amount of reading matter which it did at first, and has a succession of the brilliant colored pictures and toy novelties which have done so much to establish its reputation. It is a bright, clear, and instructive little Monthly. We recommend it to all who wish to supply their families with a good juvenile periodical. Subscription price, $1.50 with a premium knife or microscope.
Publication office, 473, Broadway.

Burke's Weekly for Boys and Girls.
This paper has already established itself as "the Southern favorite." It is just the periodical for boys and girls. It brings sunshine into the household. Marbles and dolls are laid aside to welcome it. It instructs and entertains at the same time, and even the old folks find interest in its pages. A new volume begins in July, with increased attractions.
Now is the time to subscribe, and to renew subscriptions. A beautiful title page and index will be furnished at the close of the volume. Terms, $2 a year, or three copies for $5. J. W. Burke & Co., Publishers, Macon, Georgia.

The Eclectic for May Contains Embellishment, the Earl of Albo-marle, Don Carlos and Phillip II, Westminster Abbey, Mighty Hunters, Brigandage in the Pontifical States, Historical Sketches of the Reign of George III, Poetry, Science, Varieties, and various other articles of interest. Terms: Single copies, 45 cents; one copy, one year, $5.00; two copies, one year, $9.00; five copies, one year, $20.00. Address W. H. Bidwell & Co., 5 Keekman St., New York.

Report of the Charleston Cotton Market for the Week Ending April 30.

Reported for the Orangeburg News by W. WALTON SMITH, COTTON FACTOR.
On Friday the 24th inst., our market opened with a good demand and prices improved about 1/2c. on our last week's quotations. The demand on Saturday was not a further advance in prices of 1/2c. or more, but the market was very quiet, and buyers manifested but little disposition to operate. On Monday the demand was good without change in prices.
The market on Tuesday was very quiet, and buyers manifested but little disposition to operate. On Wednesday the market was dull, and only a small business done at a decline of 1/2c. The market on Thursday was quiet, with light sales, at about prices of the day before. The sales for the week foot up some 5000 bales. We quote: Low Middling..... 20@20 1/2
Middling..... 21@21 1/2
Strict Middling..... 22

Hard Times Played Out.

To One and All, what do you think, Whiskey at Cannon's 10 cents a Drink;
There is Whiskey for all, and won't it be nice,
To step into Cannon's and drink for Half Price.
It's often a Drink we'd be glad to get
When the weather is cold, cloudy and wet, But 20 cents was too much for poor men to spare, Now 10 cents a drink and Cannon's near there.
